PROTECT OUR MINOR DAUGHTERS FROM HAVING SECRET ABORTIONS

- The Parent's Right to Know Act will close loopholes in existing state law that allow abortionists to perform secret abortions on underage girls.
- This loophole not only interferes with the rights of parents, it puts girls in abusive situations at greater risk.
- Under current state law, teens may not have their ears pierced or be given aspirin in schools without their parent's consent. Yet, loopholes in the current parental involvement statute do not require abortionists to notify parents about their children's pending abortions or law enforcement authorities about suspected sexual abuse. This allows sexual predators to cover up their crimes with secret abortions.
- The Parent's Right to Know Act would allow parents and appropriate law enforcement authorities to protect our children by requiring abortionists to notify parents of their minor child's pending abortion and exposing sexual abuse.
- Sign the petition at wvforlife.org and print out a few so as to obtain signatures. Petitions should be submitted by March 6, 2017, in order to be presented at the noon rally on Pro-Life Rally Day on March 13.

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP

- Contact your state Delegates and Senators at 1-877-565-3447. Ask them to pass Parent's Right to Know legislation as early as possible during the next Session, which begins 2/8/17.
- Plan now to attend Pro-Life Rally Day in the State Capitol on Monday, March 13, 2017, to support passage of legislation to protect our minor daughters from obtaining secret abortions.
